

Hyphenated American
I will never be
God's country
For which I have died
Built with my hands
Tilled with my fingers
Freedom with my blood
Dish
I shall take my Rights without asking
Constitutional pretention
I shall overcome
My flag waving high

Rubber bullets
And metal bullets
They fire to kill the struggle
They blind and they maim
But can never stop my Aim
To fight for equality
And for what is mine to obtain

Conversation is the beginning
The means but not the end
I can't see a future without Expressing my freedom

Participation from every citizen
To uphold global equity and safety

Judicial injustice reigns
Judges taking corporate bribe
And feigning
Arm of the law
They call the police
Aiding and faking
Deliberate lies they fabricate
Destroy communities and instigate
Robbed ,Raped, killed
Hineous crimes
Continue to Rob our wealth
Justified by Judicial Stealth Holding us back from
Our prosperous fate
Perpetual oppression gaining Corporations of Jail-house bloating desperation of my people faining
Where are you God ?
Your preachers mentally
My people enslaving Subjugating the the nation and the neighborhood
Preaching falsehood

Why does this happen to my people?

Don't give up I say

No house of prayer shall save the day

You have to act now and participate

Implement Judicial change and legislate

Never late to celebrate

Too many dead Martyrs

Over hundreds of years

Lest we forget

Innocent men women and children

Murdered by criminals

Supported and protected

by law enforcers

Who condoned and spread the fires of hatred and the murders

The blood of my sisters and brethren

Shall never sleep

Till the night comes

When earth and heaven

Ask for my people's forgiveness

For the deeds of the heathen

Remove police immunity
And Corrupt Judges
They are expendible
My life is priceless
Obliterate the above
from my community
Listen to my testimony righteous leadership however tiny
Is better than corrupt gluttony
Blind the law
With social harmony

Strife for justice and liberation
We are tired of lies False promises and untrue staged deliberations
Demonstrate equality
by governance that bring Positive actions

Philosophy and culture of hatred
Social ,Economic and Religious powers
Color stratified suppressions
Children , none born with that thread
Fed by social ignorance and economic threat
Fertilized by religion
In society and family homes it is bred

Hatred Shall reign
Until the children are love fed
Next generation
Hate-free mind body and soul harvested
Freeing their society and mind from the cage where injustice was inbred

When Global mankind
Is colorblind
And the hundreds of years of injustice
The blood and memory
Of all the martyrs recognized no soul shall sleep and rest Until everyone is treated
Equally and prejudice eliminated

Only then the Martyrs shall smile
From heavens and witness history
